

Return Policy

Returns and Refunds may vary according to the following provider and circumstances. Please read below for the applicable policies:

Returns/Refunds of Digital Improvements For Offices Products, Services, & Memberships

All products, services, and community memberships provided directly by Digital Improvements For Offices are non-refundable. Purchasing any of these online services means that you agree and adhere to the non-refundable and non-returnable policy. Revisions for work beyond submission may be offered for specific products upon the agreement prior to the purchase of the digital product. Please refer to your agreement to determine if you are eligible for any revisions on your service or product as stated within your product or service agreement.

Services and products are fully customizable and/or owned by you upon completion of your purchase. Digital Improvements For Offices will no longer have ownership or the means to further edit some services/products after you receive your order. Community memberships grant you access to exclusive benefits not provided to non-community members that are unable to be returned to Digital Improvements For Offices once you receive them. This is why all services, products, and memberships are non-refundable. You may cancel your membership or subscription services at any time to prevent future recurring payments.

All purchases and agreements are final once you have submitted payment for your services, products, and/or memberships using your payment method.

Returns/Refunds of Community Members/Freelancers

Digital Improvements For Offices allows outside organizations, freelancers, entrepreneurs, etc. to pay for a subscription to have their services featured on my website as a form of advertising their services to our customers. I am not responsible for their service delivery, performance, or refund/return policies. By purchasing services through these third-party service providers, you agree to abide by their return/refund policies and not hold Digital Improvements For Offices responsible for your orders under any circumstances. All order related issues, questions, or concerns must be handled through that organization's service link and direct point of contact.

When I change the Terms in a material manner, I will notify you that material changes have been made to the Terms. Your continued use of the Website, services, or membership after any such change constitutes your acceptance of the new Terms. If you do not agree to any of these terms or any future version of the Terms, do not use or access (or continue to access) the website, service, or membership.
